

Bibliography

- Appelbaum, Almost a Revolution: Mental Health Law and the Limits of Change (Oxford 1994)
- Applebaum, Civil Mental Health Law: Its History and Its Future, 20 MPDLR 599 (ABA 1996)
- Involuntary Civil Commitment: a manual for lawyers and judges* (American Bar Association Commission on the Mentally Disabled 1988)
- Bagenstos, Law and the Contradictions of the Disability Movement (Yale 2009)
- Bagenstos, The Past and Future of Deinstitutionalization Litigation, 34 Cardozo L. Rev. 1 (2012)
- Bostick, Kirkman, Samuels, Individual Rights vs The Therapeutic State: An Advocacy Model for Respondent's Counsel in Civil Commitment, 13 Capital L. Rev. 139 (1983)
- Burch & Joyner, Unspeakable: The Story of Junius Wilson (North Carolina 2007)
- Eagle & Kirkman, Ohio Mental Health Law 2d Ed. (Banks Baldwin 1990)(out of print)
- Gould, Carrie Buck's Daughter, 7 Natural History 14 (1984)
- Hyde & Darby, Civil Commitment in Ohio: A Manual for Respondent's Attorneys (Ohio Legal Rights Service 1980)
- Schwiek, The Ugly Laws: Disability in Public (New York University Press 2009)
- Schweik, Kicked to the Curb: Ugly Law Then and Now, 46 Harv. C.R.-C.L. Rev. 1 (2011)
- Szasz, The Myth of Mental Illness: Foundations of a theory of personal conduct (Rev. Ed. Perennial Library 1974)
- Whitaker, Mad in America: Bad Science, Bad Medicine, and the Enduring Treatment of the Mentally Ill (Persesus 2002)